

Charles Wheeler (PhD, History, Yale) is Research Assistant Professor at the Institute for the Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Hong Kong. He researches early modern Vietnam, maritime China, and the South China Sea. His publications address the role of the sea in Vietnamese history; Sino-Vietnamese merchant elites; littoral society, political ecology, and piracy in the South China Sea; ethnohistory and political identity in Vietnam's Cham regions; and the role of Buddhism in Chinese merchant diaspora.
