

Li Tana is Senior Fellow of the Division of Pacific and Asian History, College of Asia and Pacific Studies, the Australian National University. She studies the maritime history of Vietnam and the history of overseas Chinese. Her most recent project focuses on the history of natural disasters in Vietnam and southern China over the last 1000 years. Her works include Nguyen Cochinchina (1998), Water Frontier (2004, co-edited with Nola Cooke), and The Tongking Gulf through History (2010, co-edited with Nola Cooke and James A. Anderson).