

Tran Duc Anh Son (Ph.D., archaeology, Vietnam National University) is the Deputy Director of the Danang Institute for Socio-Economic Development. He formerly worked the Hue Monuments Conservation Center and as both Deputy Director and Director of the Hue Museum of Royal Fine Arts. He is the author of seven books on history, culture and tourism in the Hue region. These include A View on the Culture and History of the Ancient Capital of Hue and the Nguyen Dynasty (in Vietnamese, 2004, reprinted 2008) and Sino-Vietnamese Porcelain in the Nguyen Period (2008).